APPEAL RIGHTS AND FILING PROCEDURES

Any person dissatisfied with an act or determination of the Planning Commission may appeal such act or determination to the City Council by filing written notice with City Clerk not later than five (5) business days (excluding holidays) after the day on which the act or determination was made. An appeal must state the act or determination which is being appealed, the identity of the applicant and his/her interest in the matter, and set forth in concise statement(s) the reasons which render the Commission's decision unjustified or inappropriate. (Los Banos Municipal Code Section 9-3.2226)

Concerning an action taken by the Planning Commission related to Chapter 2 Articles 1 through 17 of the Los Banos Municipal Code "Subdivisions", if a subdivider or other affected property owner is dissatisfied with any action of the Commission with respect to a tentative map or the nature and extent of improvements recommended or required he/she may within fifteen (15) days after such action appeal to the City Council for a public hearing on the matter. An appeal must state the action being appealed, identify the agenda item by agency number or project title, and set forth in concise statement(s) the reasons for the appeal. (Los Banos Municipal Code Sections 9-2.807)

Appeals must be in writing and include the appellant's name and address and original signature. A filing fee of $150.00 must accompany the notice of appeal.

I hereby certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing agenda was posted on the City Hall bulletin board not less than 72 hours prior to the meeting.
